

Code of Conduct

1. Introduction

The Code of Conduct defines the standards of behaviour we expect of all our employees. If you do not understand it or how to comply with it, you must ask your line manager to explain it to you.

The intention of the Code of Conduct is to helpfully set out the broad principles of how we should do things – it is not an exhaustive list of what you can and cannot do. (The Code of Conduct is enforced through our disciplinary procedure).

2. Behave professionally

We expect all staff to interact and work with the public and colleagues in an appropriate and professional way at all times.

We expect you to engender public trust and confidence in the Council and not to bring the organisation into disrepute. This includes action outside of work that is relevant to your job role or that may undermine public confidence in you to carry out your role. You must not knowingly publish or post anything, including on social media that could damage the reputation of the Council.

We expect you to co-operate with your manager and comply with all lawful management instructions.

You are expected to work in a professional manner with all Councillors regardless of their political affiliation. If you have or enter into a close personal relationship with an Elected Member you need to disclose this (see Section 11).

3. Act with honesty and Integrity

We expect you to communicate openly and honestly with your line manager about your work.

We expect you to submit accurate claims for expenses and allowances – claiming only for payments which you are entitled to receive. If you receive any payment in error, for example an overpayment of salary or expenses, you must notify your manager as soon as possible.

You must keep accurate records of your working time where this is required.

You must not order goods for your own personal use through a Council account. You are not permitted to use your position to obtain a discount for goods or services unless this is part of our recognised employee discount scheme.

4. Act lawfully

You must comply with the law in all aspects of your work.

You are required to immediately notify your manager in writing if you are arrested, cautioned, charged or convicted of any crime at any point during your employment. Your manager will assess whether this information has any impact on your job role.

If you suspect that someone is breaking the law you must report this - speak to your line manager in the first instance. Alternatively you should contact Internal Audit or raise your concerns using the Whistleblowing Policy.

If your role involves working in/managing children or adult services you must inform your manager immediately if you are barred for any reason. If you are working in early years childcare, or working with/managing later years childcare (for children up to the age of 8 outside the school day) you must tell your manager immediately if you are disqualified from working with children or if someone who lives or works in your household becomes barred.

5. Respect equality and diversity

Respecting the equality and diversity of the public that we serve and your colleagues is very important. We expect you to promote our commitment to equality and diversity at all times.

You must not discriminate against any individual on the basis of their protected characteristic(s) (i.e. because of their age, disability, race, religion or belief, gender, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, pregnancy or maternity leave or because of a person's marital or civil partnership status).

You should appropriately challenge any discriminatory behaviour that you witness – and seek support from your line manager in the first instance.

6. Contact with the media

You must not make statements to the media on behalf of the Council unless it is your job to do so. All media enquiries should be referred to our Communications Team.

7. Fulfil your safeguarding responsibilities

We are committed to safeguarding children and vulnerable adults and it is essential that you fully comply with our safeguarding policies and procedures. This includes adhering to specific local rules and procedures that apply in your area of work. If you have any concerns about any aspects of safeguarding you must raise these with your line manager in the first instance. Alternatively you should raise any safeguarding concerns using the Whistleblowing Procedure.

8. Handle information securely

We have specific rules on data security, outlined in Information Management Policy, which you need to read and familiarise yourself with. You are required to comply with these rules when handling information. You must not access or use any information obtained in the course of your employment for personal gain.

9. Comply with all policies, rules and procedures

You are required to act in accordance with all of our policies and procedures and comply with local rules that are in place in your area of work.

- IT Policies – i.e. computer misuse policy, internet policy, email policy, mobile device policy
- Health and safety policy and procedures – include the Drug Alcohol and Substance Misuse policy and the Smoke Free Policy
- Anti Money Laundering and Anti Fraud and Corruption Policy
- All employment policies

10. Fulfil your management responsibilities

If you have line management responsibility you must make sure your employees are aware of the Code of Conduct and address any breaches as soon as these occur.

We expect you to proactively manage any employment issues that arise in your team in accordance with our employment policies.

You are responsible for proactively managing your team's performance and promptly addressing any performance issues that arise.

You must not be involved in making significant decisions that involve a relative, partner or friend. You are not permitted to line manage a partner or family member.

11. Declare relevant interests

You are required to declare any private interests that you have and any work that you undertake elsewhere in accordance with table below

Situation	Action required
Undertaking private work (paid or unpaid)	All employees - complete the Private Interests Form before doing any private work. Employees on a P Grade (or equivalent) and above – must also discuss with their Head of Service the potential impact of additional work on their role with us and agree how any potential negative impact will be avoided.

12. Declare gifts and hospitality

You must declare any gifts and hospitality that you are offered as detailed below. If you have any doubts about whether you should accept a gift or offer of hospitality you should speak to your line manager. There may be specific local rules that apply in your team e.g. to protect vulnerable service users who may feel obliged to give a gift.

Situation	Action required
Offered a token gift (value of £25 or lower)	Check with your manager if this can be accepted Complete a declaration form
Offered a gift that is more than a token gift (value of £25 or above)	Do not accept Return gifts that have already been received Make a declaration
Offers of hospitality	You may attend a function in an official capacity for example a conference related to your job role. Decline any invitations that are primarily or only for social purposes (and that could be viewed as trying to influence your decision making).

13. Further information

Employees with questions about the Code of Conduct should speak to their line manager. Managers requiring further guidance should speak to the HR Advisory Team.
